Walteria News Notes

Costume Ball Slated By Pacific Hills Set

By BETTY MITCHELL, Davenport 6-4458
The newly founded intermedial girl scout troop of Walteria held its second mothers' meeting on October 2, at the home of Mrs. Willie Allen on Ward St. The ladies spent a busy time discussing future plans for the troop, including their recent bake sale. Mr. Dukes of Newton St. represented the fathers. This scout troop is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Torrance and is under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Bebbing of Ocean Ave.

The week-end of October 23-24 looks like a busy one here in Walteria. On those two days the W.S.C.S. is sponsoring a rummage sale at the vacant shop next to the Fix-it Shop on the corner of Newton St. and Hawthorne Blvd. All kinds of items will be found by those who wish to attend and "rummage" around.

The second activity for that week-end is the costume ball being held by the Pacific Hills Home Owner's Association. The dance is going to be at the Lomita V.F.W. Hall. Prizes will be given for the best costumed couple, the funniest, and the most original costumes. The date of the big event is Saturday night, October 24, from 9 to 1 o'clock. Soft drinks and orange juice will be sold at the hall. Music for the evening will be furnished by Byron Harkins and his orchestra who also played at the last dance given by the association. Speaking of the association, they held their last meeting for the year at the Walteria School on Monday evening. The program for the evening included a talk by Mrs. Carl Cameron, president of the local P.T.A., on the aims and purposes for the P.T.A. and its relationship to the smooth co-operation between the home and school.

The plans for the big P.T.A. carnival are in full swing. The carnival will be held on October 30 at the school. There will be no costume parade this year since both the number of pupils and the problems presented by half-day sessions prohibits the activity for this year. There will be lots of fun to be had by the small fry though, as they wander through a maze of 23 booths which will be set up for the event. Needless to say, mom and dad will find lots to occupy their time. In the game booths to the white elephant sale and the country store. For those who wish to munch on something, there will be hot dogs and chili available, as well as candy, baked goods, and pop-corn. Coffee, milk, and chocolate milk are also on the menu. For the admission price of 5 cents the small fry can attend the movie which will be a continuous performance. Mom and dad also will be glad to hear that there will be available in one of the school rooms with adult supervision and girl scout assistance. The carnival will start at five in the afternoon and continue on into the evening.

The Jack Galls of Danaha St. who were supposed to spend a short vacation in San Francisco last week fooled all of us by stopping off at Santa Barbara for a few days, and then returning home, followed by a visit to Newport Beach. Seems they had a swell time at Santa Barbara, even though daughter Hilary finished it off with a fall into the swimming pool which necessitated a rescue by mother.

The Walteria Business Men's Club are really enjoying their meetings held every other Thursday evening at the Nicol's Poultry Ranch. The last meeting saw a spread of broiled Salisbury steak, baked potatoes, sliced vegetable and peach pie put before the hungry men. Their next meeting is scheduled for tonight.

Lawson's Sale Starts Today

A 24 inch doll will be offered for $1 to every customer who makes a purchase of over $15 during Lawson's Jeweler's third anniversary in Torrance sale, which begins today at the 1317 El Prado store, according to A. Robinson, vice president of Lawson's Jeweler's.

Lawson's Jeweler's have been in business for 50 years. "Tremendous savings and great values will be offered during this anniversary sale," Robinson said.

Mrs. Ralph A. Aldrich of Walteria, The bundle was in the form of a plump little girl weighing seven pounds, three and one-half ounces. Named Sue Lorraine, she is the first child for the family, and the first grandchild for the paternal grandparents. She arrived at the Centinela Hospital in Inglewood. Paternal grandparents, residents of Pacific Coast Hwy., are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Aldrich. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Alden Lambert of Centerville, Ga.

It was in October, 1906, that Charles Von der Ahe opened a grocery store at the corner of Seventh St. and Figueroa in Los Angeles. Since that time, Von's markets have gained local, national and even international prominence in the grocery field. Von der Ahe is still active as president of the chain.

Two new, modern supermarkets are under construction at present; one is located at Sherman Way and Etiwanda in Reseda and the other at La Tijera and Centinela in Los Angeles. Von's officials plan to have these other markets under construction before the end of the year.

Von's operate complete supermarket, including grocery, meats, delicatessen, fresh fruits and vegetables and sundries. A Van De Kamp's Bakery is included in each Von's Market.

Alter Appears In Who's Who

A career sketch of Gerald L. Alter, president of Alter Realty and Insurance Co., appears in the eighth volume of "Who's Who in Commerce and Industry," just released by the A. N. Marquis Co. of Chicago.

Alter, who is also president of the Alter Building Co., was also listed in the first edition of "Who's Who on the Pacific Coast," published in 1951.
